

Gakushuin Women's University
Asian Community — an interdisciplinary approach —

Duration: from September to January 2016

- #01 Guidance regarding the course

- #02 [history, general] Issues regarding “perception of history” in Asia and the possibility of reconciliation
Jun Kon-no (associate professor, Gakushuin Women's University)

- #03 [history, politics] Japan-China joint project before and during the war
李嘉冬 (assistant professor, Donghua University)

- #04 [history, economy] East Asian economic history with emphasis on Hong Kong
李培德 (associate professor, University of Hong Kong)

- #05 [history, thought] Asian regionalism during the war, and future international relations in Asia
朴尚洙 (professor, Korea University)

- #06 [society] Citizenship in Japan, and Asia
Kuniharu Tokiyasu (professor, Gakushuin Women's University)

- #07 [society] Legal support for foreign residents in Japan
Ryoko Minagawa (lawyer, Milestone Law Office)

- #08 [society] China and Japan — prospects for transnational public zone
Tomoko Ako (associate professor, University of Tokyo)

- #09 [international, language] Education of Japanese language in Sri Lanka
Nimal Mallawa Arachchi (professor, University of Kelaniya)

- #10 [international, economy] World economy and East Asia in the process of change
Hitoshi Hirakawa (professor emeritus, Nagoya University)

- #11 [international, demographic shift] Demographic shift in East Asia and international relations
羅京洙 (associate professor, Gakushuin Women's University)

- #12 [environment] Influence of nuclear accident in Japan on East Asia
宋浣範 (professor, Korea University)

- #13 [environment] Environmental problems seen from agricultural point of view
Mikitaro Shobayasi (professor, Gakushuin Women's University)

- #14 [general] Dream and vision of Asian Community
Yoji Sato (director, One Asia Foundation)

- #15 [general] Conclusive remarks of the course

Note Lectures are subject to change according to lecturers' convenience.