

Yeungnam University

Asian Community

Duration: From September to December, 2016

- #01 Why do we need Asian Community now?
(01 September) 鄭俊坤 (chief researcher, One Asia Foundation)
- #02 Asian Community considered in view of modern history of East Asia
(08 September) 孫承會 (professor, Chinese History, Lingnam University)
- #03 Influence of the literature of Tagore on East Asia
(22 September) Madoka Hori (professor, Japanese Culture, Osaka City University)
- #04 Modern history of East Asia and cultural movement in the 1950s
(29 September) Shoya Unoda (associate professor, History of Thought in Japan, Osaka University)
- #05 Oriental philosophy and Asian Community
(06 October) 梁一模 (professor, Oriental Philosophy, Seoul National University)
- #06 Economic exchanges and cooperation for the formation of Asian Community
(13 October) 崔義炫 (professor, Economic Policy, Lingnam University)
- #07 Mid-term examination
(20 October)
- #08 Cold war and Asian Community
(27 October) 權憲益 (endowed professor, Social Anthropology, University of Cambridge)
- #09 Asia Community and human rights
(03 November) キム・ジェワン (lawyer, for human right of disabled persons)
- #10 Asian sensibility seen in the East Asian cinema world
(10 November) 沈銀珍 (professor, Art, Cheongju University)
- #11 Future of Asian Community considered in view of Asian traditional theatrical performance
(17 November) 李旻和 (assistant professor, French Literature, Lingnam University)
- #12 Popular culture which is consolidating Asian Community
(24 November) 金香淑 (lecturer, Comparative Culture, Nihon University)
- #13 Asian Community and the role of Mongolia
(01 December) Li Narangoa (professor, History of Asian Thought, Australian National University)
- #14 End-of-term examination
(09 December)
- #15 Towards the formation of Asian Community
 Yoji Sato (director, One Asia Foundation)

Note Lectures are subject to change according to lecturers' convenience