

City University of Hong Kong

Cultural Retrospect and Looking Future of China and Asian Community

Duration: From September 2015 to April 2014

- #01 “China” seen from historical and cultural viewpoints of other East Asian countries
葛兆光 (professor, dean, Faculty of History, Fudan University)

- #02 Japan-S. Korea relations perceived by peoples in East Asia
鄭俊坤 (chief researcher, One Asia Foundation)

- #03 Japanese and Chinese films seen by East Asian peoples
Yoichi Sai (film director, Directors Guild of Japan)
Fumitoshi Karima (professor, Modern Asian History, University of Tokyo)

- #04 What is Chinese classics to “national language” of East Asian countries
Shouyou Rin (associate professor, Faculty of Liberal Arts, University of Tokyo)

- #05 Disregarded but major literary history; Chinese novels and dramas before modern times
Bunkyo Kin (professor, Chinese Literature, Kyoto University)

- #06 “Hung Lou Meng” and Ching history
崔容敏 (professor, Chinese Classics, Korea University)

- #07 “Yi Jing” and Confucianism
韓子奇 (professor, State University of New York at Geneseo)

- #08 School text-books in Meiji Period and modern China
黃東蘭 (professor, History of Modern China, Aichi Prefectural University)

- #09 Memory and politics
孫江 (professor, History, Nanjing University)

- #10 Kang Youwei and “Kong Jiao” movement
彭春凌 (assistant researcher, Modern History, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences)

- #11 Teachings of Chu His and East Asia
陶德民 (professor, History of Thought, Kansai University)

- #12 Underlying thought behind East Asian medical science
辛圭煥 (associate professor, Medical History Yonsei University, S. Korea)

- #13 “New Life Movement” in China in the 1930s
Hideo Fukamachi (professor, Political History, Chuo University)

- #14 Special lecture
Yoji Sato (director, One Asia Foundation)

Note Lectures are subject to change according to lecturers’ convenience.