

Graduate School of Language & Society, Hitotsubashi University

Course on “Asian Community”

Duration: From April to July, 2017

- #01                   Orientation of the course
(10 April)
- #02                   Korean ethnic music considered from Asian point of view
(17 April)           Yukio Uemura (professor, Music Department, Tokyo National Univ. of Fine Arts and Music)
- #03                   Women and politics in Indonesia, and Asia
(24 April)           Kaoru Kochi (part-time instructor, Indonesian Political History, Daito Bunka University)
- #04                   Modern dance in Japan and Asia
(01 May)            Kazuko Kuniyoshi (Lecturer, Modern Dance, Tama Art University)
- #05                   Socialism in Mongolia expressed in its cinema
(08 May)            フフバートル (professor, Showa Women's University)
- #06                   Asia expressed in Buddhist art
(15 May)            カン・ヒジョン (professor, History of Oriental Art, Sogang University, So. Korea)
- #07                   Story telling journey transcending modern times
(29 May)            Nobuko Kyo (writer)
- #08                   Experience of transmigration for “karayukisan (work away from home as a prostitute)”, and Asia
(05 June)            Niina Takemoto (fellow, Graduate School of Language & Society, Hitotsubashi University)
- #09                   Beijing Opera and Korean Dance
(12 June)            Emily Wilcox (assistant professor, Modern Chinese Studies, University of Michigan)
- #10                   (under negotiation ... someone from Taiwan)
(19 June)
- #11                   (under negotiation ... someone from China)
(26 June)
- #12                   Shift of positioning “Vietnam Culture” in modern Vietnam
(03 July)            Sayaka Oizumi (specially appointed researcher, Faculty of Liberal Arts, Univ. of Tokyo)
- #13                   Real meaning of finger language as a “language”
(10 July)            Harumi Kimura (teacher, National Rehabilitation Center for Persons with Disabilities)
- #14                   The meaning of Asian Community
(17 July)            Chung Joonkon (chief researcher, One Asia Foundation)

*Note* Lectures are subject to change according to lecturers' convenience.