

College of Humanities and Sciences, Nihon University
Course on “Possibility of Regional Cooperation in Asia — Why we need Asian Community now”
Duration: From September 2013 to January 2014

- #01                      Necessity of Asian Community in the age of globalization
(24 September)      Kazuyoshi Aoki (professor, College of Humanities & Sciences, Nihon University)
- #02                      Strife between nationalism and internationalism
(1 October)           Koji Ishikawa (professor, College of Humanities & Sciences, Nihon University)
- #03                      Concept of Asian Community from a Japanese viewpoint
(8 October)           Hidematsu Hiyoshi (assistant professor, College of Humanities & Sciences, Nihon University)
- #04                      Asian Community from a Chinese viewpoint — a cultural approach
(15 October)         張永宏 (professor, Yunnan University)
- #05                      International relations in Asia and Asian Community
(22 October)         初曉波 (associate professor, Peking University)
- #06                      Asian Community from a Korean viewpoint — an economical and financial approach
(5 November)        金在仁 (professor, Korea University)
- #07                      Security issues of Korean Peninsula and Asian Community
(12 November)      鄭陽力燮 (associate professor, College of International Relations, Nihon University)
- #08                      Asian Community from a Taiwanese viewpoint
(19 November)      段瑞聰 (professor, Keio University)
- #9                        Asian Community from a Mongolian viewpoint
(26 November)      Sh. Enkhbayar (chief researcher, Economic Research Institute for Northeast Asia)
- #10                      Cultural ties and Asian Community in the eyes of EU
(3 December)        Kazunari Sakai (associate professor, Kobe University)
- #11                      Asian Community and the experience of ASEAN — seen from Thai viewpoint
(10 December)      Rungsun Lertnaisat (professor, Thai-Nichi Institute of Technology)
- #12                      Asian Community and the experience of ASEAN — seen from Indonesian viewpoint
(17 December)      Dianni Risda (professor, Indonesian University of Education)
- #13                      Asian Community and citizens
(14 January)         鄭俊坤 (chief researcher, One Asia Foundation)
- #14                      General discussion with the students: the significance and problems of Asian Community
(21 January)         attended by professors Aoki, Ishikawa and Hiyoshi
- #15                      Toward the formation of Asian Community
(28 January)         Yoji Sato (director, One Asia Foundation)