

Hiroshima City University
An Open Community in Asia

Duration: From October 2013 to January 2014

- #01 The post-war movement of persons within a global space in East Asia
(2 October) Toshio Iyotani (professor emeritus, Hitotsubashi University)
- #02 Inter-firm cooperation of semiconductor industry in Asia: tasks in the age from competition to racing
(9 October) 金泰旭 (professor, Hiroshima City University)
- #03 TTP as a new free trade zone: logic of formation & implications in the sense of community
(16 October) Kaoru Nabeshima (senior researcher, Transdisciplinary Research Center, Institute of Developing Economies)
- #04 Changing international relations and the future security of Asia-Pacific region
(23 October) Tatsuya Nishida (associate professor, Hiroshima City University)
- #05 Interface between Asia and Arab
(30 October) Masaki Uno (professor, Hiroshima City University)
- #06 Open East Asian Community: overcoming the issues of history and territory
(6 November) Kazuhiko Togo (professor, Kyoto Sangyo University)
- #07 Open community in Asia: argumentation, structure and process
(13 November) Haruki Wada (professor emeritus, University of Tokyo)
- #08 Linguistic situation in Asia and the role of the “hyper” language English
(20 November) Chiaki Iwai (professor, Hiroshima City University)
- #09 The concept & practice of East Asian nuclear-free zone: model case of security cooperation
(27 November) Kazumi Mizumoto (professor, deputy director, Hiroshima Peace Institute, Hiroshima City University)
- #10 Acceptance and cultural sharing of Buddhism in East Asia and its meaning in our age
(4 December) 李鐘徹 (professor, Academy of Korean Studies)
- #11 East Asian linguistic affinity due to using the same Kanji character
(11 December) Kazunari Iwata (associate professor, Hiroshima City University)
- #12 Structure and process of East Asian community: possibility, obstacles and future prospects
(18 December) 任赫白 (professore, Korea University)
- #13 Policies regarding foreign workers in East Asian countries and their human-right issue:
(8 January) Cases of Japanese in South Korea and Koreans in Japan
 金聖哲 (professor, researcher of unification movement, Seoul National University)
- #14 Validity of unified currency and banking system in East Asia
(15 January) Jun-ichi Goto (professor, Keio University)
- #15 “One World” to be realized in the near future
(29 January) Yoji Sato (director, One Asia Foundation)

Note Lectures are subject to change according to lecturers' convenience.