

Hokkaido University
Course on “Asian Community”
Duration: From April to July 2015

Part I: General remarks

- #01 Guidance on the course
- #02 Global immigration: general observation
- #03 International immigration before 1945: Europe, North America and Oceania
- #04 Immigration in Asia: developing countries and newly developed countries

Part II: Actual situation: Immigration in bordering area

- #05 Current situation of communities of Japanese immigrants
Chikako Kashiwazaki (associate professor, Keio University)
- #06 Korean people living in Sakhalin
韓恵人 (professor, Sungkyun Kwan University)
- #07 Goryeo people in Central Asia
李エリア (University of Tokyo)
- #08 David City of Belfast
Liam O'Dowd (Queens University, Belfast)
- #9 Immigrant country Canada
Hyung-kyu Lynn (University of British Columbia)

Part II: I Actual situation: Reports and representation

- #10 How to write a report
- #11 Grouping and group work
- #12 Group work
- #13 Presentation of students
- #14 Presentation of students: submission of papers
- #15 (reserve day)

[Academic sincerity]

At the class work, all the students are required to abide by the rules regarding academic sincerity. Fraudulent use of other person's paper may be punished if it is discovered.