

Kyushu University
Course on “Asian Community”

Duration: From October 2013 to January 2014

- 2013
- #01 Introduction to the “Study on the East Asian Community”
(October 2) Tadatoshi Matsubara (professor, Kyushu University)
- #02 Studies on Japan-Korea cooperation
(October 9) Masao Okonogi (project professor, Kyushu University)
- #03 Formation of the East Asian cultural zone
(October 16) Andrew Hall (associate professor, Kyushu University)
- #04 Integration of economies in East Asia
(October 23) Takayoshi Kabu (deputy director, Kyushu Economic Research Center)
- #05 The techno community connecting Japan, China and Korea
(October 30) Hideki Iwabuchi (assistant division chief, Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports Science and Technology)
- #06 What is East Asian Community
(November 2) Atsushi Sunami (associate professor, National Graduate Institute for Policy Studies)
- #07 Lessons from two economic crises and the East Asian economic cooperation
(November 13) 金ヨンジエ (professor, Faculty of Economics, Pusan National University)
- #08 Rapid increase in energy consumption and the aggravated situation of pollution problems
(November 20) Yasutake Teraoka (professor, Kyushu University)
- #09 The East Asian Community in terms of politics
(November 27) Choi Deok Soo (assistant professor, Kyushu University)
- #10 Inevitability of East Asian Community (presentation by students)
(December 4) Takatoshi Matsubara and 金ヨンジエ
- #11 Negotiation between Japan and Korea for FTA, and barrier elements
(December 11) Robert Edwin Kelly (assistant professor, Pusan National University)
- #12 Conflicts concerning historical perception and the possibility of conciliation
(December 18) 李弘杓 (professor, Kyushu University)
- 2014
- #13 East Asian regional integration, and currency/financial unification
(January 8) Michael Begin (professor, Pusan National University)
- #14 A proposal regarding the formation of Asian Community
(January 15) Yoji Sato (director, One Asia Foundation), Takatoshi Matsubara
- #15 Examination
(January 22) Takatoshi Matsubara