

Meiji University

Course on “Mutual Understanding for the Establishment of Asian Community”

Duration: From September 2013 to January 2014

- #01 Significance for us to reflect on Asia now (partly as an introduction to the course)
(30 September) Tokuo Konishi & Kazuyuki Takahashi (professors, Meiji University)
- #02 History of interchange between Japan and South / North Korea – exemplified by sports
(7 October) exchange
 Hiroshi Oshima (freelance journalist)
- #03 Tasks of Japan’s foreign policy toward Asian Countries
(14 October) Toru Magosaki (diplomatic analyst)
- #04 Current situation of medical services and environment in Asia
(21 October) Nomi Wakasugi (professor, University of Tsukuba)
- #05 Asia seen from an Afghan point of view, and the world
(28 October) Tetsu Nakamura (medical service, Peshawar-kai)
- #06 “Meaning of life residing in Japan”
(2 November) Kang Sang-jung (professor, University of Tokyo)
- #07 India’s strategy toward Japan and Asia
(11 November) デイーパ・ゴパラン・ワドワ (ambassador to Japan, Indian Embassy in Japan)
- #08 Asia in the future considered from a Philippine point of view
(18 November) Orly Mercado (professor, University of the Philippine)
- #9 Governance over Asia
(25 November) Elko Prosajo (professor, University of Indonesia)
- #10 The possibility of “East Asia”
(2 December) 陳光興 (professor, National Chiao Tung University)
- #11 To attain sustainable economic development in Asia
(7 December) Harman E. Daly (professor, University of Maryland)
- #12 Japan and East Asia seen from a Chinese viewpoint
(9 December) 孫 歌 (researcher, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences)
- #13 Toward the establishment of Asian Community
(16 December) Yoji Sato (director, One Asia Foundation)
- #14 Significance for us to reflect on Asia now (partly as a conclusion of the course)
(15 January) Kosaku Dairokuno & Isao Nitta (professors, Meiji University)

Note: Lectures given by foreign lecturers will be translated simultaneously.