

Formation of Asian Community considered from a Viewpoint of Mutual Multilingual Education

Duration: From April to July 2014

- #01                      Orientation of the course: what is Asian Community?
(9 April)                Yoshiaki Yanagisawa (professor, Japanese Language, Meikai University)
- #02                      Mutual foreign language education in Asia and Asian Community
(16 April)               Kayoko Nakano (special assistant, Institute of Developing Economies)
- #03                      Corporate strategy of enterprises and the concept of Asian Community — language
(23 April)               education as a key for its formation
                             Hiroshi Inoue (division manager, Japan Business Federation)
- #04                      Change in community spirit caused by population migration & transformation of social life in Asia
(7 May)                   Naoki Shimoda (professor, dean, Faculty of Economics, Meikai University)
- #05                      National policy to use native language in each Asian Country, and community spirit
(14 May)                 Kiyoyasu Tanaka (researcher, IDE/JETRO)
- #06                      Common language in Asia and Asian Community
(21 May)                 Daniel Long (professor, Sociolinguistics, Tokyo Metropolitan University)
- #07                      Possibility of Asian Community considered from contents of the media in Asia
(28 May)                 鄭起永 (professor, Japanese Language, Busan University of Foreign Studies)
- #08                      Possibility of Asian Community considered from Asian history and pending problems
(4 June)                 許衛東 (associate professor, Economic Geography, Osaka University)
- #09                      Technological progress & development acceleration to be brought about with Asian Community
(11 June)                Dedi Sutedi (professor, Japanese Language, Universitas Pendidikan Indonesia)
- #10                      Asia in the world, and regional community
(18 June)                Masami Kakazu (specially-appointed professor, National Chengchi University)
- #11                      Possibility of Asian Community considered from Asian traditional culture and social life
(25 June)                Kenji Naoi (free journalist, full-time auditor, Asahi Shimbun)
- #12                      Commonality of dietary culture in Asia as a factor to promote the formation of Asian Community
(2 July)                   Koji Akino (professor, Kagawa Nutrition University)
- #13                      Asian subculture as a factor to promote the formation of Asian Community
(9 July)                   Atsushi Nakano (staff member, The Japan Forum)
- #14                      Asian regional characteristics as a factor to promote the formation of Asian Community
(16 July)                 Koyu Furusaza (professor, Faculty of Economics, Kokugakuin University)
- #15                      Toward the formation of Asian Community
(23 July)                 Yoji Sato (director, One Asia Foundation)

*Note* Lectures are subject to change according to lecturers' convenience.