

University of Tsukuba
Global Asia and Japan — Search for the Way to Asian Community

Duration: From October to December 2013

- | | |
|----------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| #01
(2 October) | Significance of the course; reflection on Asia at this stage in a historical perspective
Sumio Hatano (professor emeritus, University of Tsukuba) |
| #02
(9 October) | The possibility of “ASEAN Community” — current situation and tasks of its system and function in relation to international relations
Motoko Shuto (professor, University of Tsukuba) |
| #03
(16 October) | “Okinawa” from a historical viewpoint of Japan/Southeast relations
Ken-ichi Goto (professor emeritus, Waseda University) |
| #04
(23 October) | Nuclear nonproliferation and disarmament, and the role of Asian Community
Heigo Sato (professor, Takushoku University) |
| #05
(30 October) | (not yet determined)
Tatsuo Akaneya (professor, University of Tsukuba) |
| | Lecture together with Prof. Dmitri-Streltsov, Russian historian who is now visiting Japan
Nobuo Shimotomai (professor, Hosei University) |
| #06
(13 November) | Characteristics of global Asia from a viewpoint of Tibetan Buddhism
牛黎壽 (lecturer, Taisho University) |
| #07
(20 November) | The role of Singapore in Asian Community
Takashi Suzuki (associate professor, Nagoya Gakuin University) |
| #08
(27 November) | Forefront of “Asian Community” studies in South Korea
尹 文九 (associate professor, Tokyo University of Social Welfare) |
| #09
(4 December) | Business in Asia — the experience of SMK transnational management
Yasumitsu Ikeda (president, SMK Corporation) |
| #10
(11 December) | Rise of China, and Japan
Kan Siyuu (senior fellow, Nomura Institute of Capital Markets Research) |
| | Asian Community and Nepal
Tatsuo Mizuno (Japanese ambassador in Nepal) |
| #11
(18 December) | The rise of China, and international relations affecting the formation of Asian Community
Shin Kawashima (associate professor, University of Tokyo) |
| #12 | Special lecture
Yoji Sato (director, One Asia Foundation) |