

Graduate School of Asia-Pacific Studies, Waseda University

“Tasks and prospects of forming Asian Community”

Duration: From September 2012 to January 2013

- #01 Debt crisis of Europe and of US, seen from Asian point of view
(27 September) LIM Hua Sing (Professor, Waseda University)

- #02 Feasibility of Asian Community
(4 October) Joon Kon CHUNG (Senior Researcher, One Asia Foundation)

- #03 The path chosen by India as an Asian country
(11 October) H. S. Prabhakar (professor, Jawaharlal Nehru University)

- #04 The role of China in Asia
(18 October) Ng Keelien (president, Asia-Pacific Society 21)

- #05 The role of Singapore in the efforts of cooperation among Asian countries
(25 October) LIM Chong Yah (professor, Nanyang Technological University)

- #06 How to give a concrete form to the concept of Asian Community
(1 November) Makoto Taniguchi (special adviser, J.F. Oberlin University)

- #07 Environmental conservation in Asia and sustainable economic development
(8 November) Euston Quah (professor, Nanyang Technological University)

- #08 Implementation of Chinese diplomatic policy in Asia
(15 November) Victor FS Sit (professor, Hong Kong Baptist University)

- #9 The path chosen by Europe toward Asian countries
(22 November) Kaako Laitinen (professor, Helsinki University)

- #10 The path chosen by the US toward Asian countries
(29 November) Thomas Ferguson (professor, University of Massachusetts)

- #11 North-South cooperation in Asia
(6 December) Jun Nishikawa (professor emeritus, Waseda University)

- #12 Tasks and future of aging society with fewer children in Asia
(13 December) Thang Leng Leng (assistant professor, National University of Singapore)

- #13 Analysis of China-Japan relations in Asia
(20 December) DU Jin (professor, Takushoku University)

- #14 The path chosen by China as an Asian country
(10 January) Chen Fenglin (professor, China Foreign College)

- #15 Labor mobility in Asia
(17 January) A. Mani (professor, University of Asia-Pacific Studies)

- #16 Formation of Asian Community and its future
(24 January) Yoji SATO (chairman, One Asia Foundation)