

Series of Courses organized by The Institute of Chinese Economies, Waseda University

Sponsored by One Asia Foundation

Course on “How to establish Asian Community”

Duration: From December 2012 to May 2013

- #01 Asian Community at the current stage
(18 Dec. 2012) 林華生 (professor, Institute of Asia-Pacific Studies, Waseda University)
- #02 To consider “Communities” in Asia from a historic standpoint
(8 Jan. 2013) 宋成有 (professor, Peking University)
- #03 When will Asian Community be established?
(22 January) Jun Nishikawa (professor emeritus, Waseda University)
- #04 Rising India and Indian Communities in Asia
(29 January) A. Mani (professor, Asia Pacific University, Japan)
- #05 Why we need Asian Community now
(5 February) 鄭俊坤 (chief researcher, One Asia Foundation)
- #06 Asian economic cooperation and ASEAN’s approach
(12 February) Lim Chong Yah (professor of economics, Nanyang Technological University, Singapore)
- #07 Asian development and India-Japan relations
(26 February) H. S. Prabhakar (professor, Jawaharlal Nehru University)
- #08 Japan in the formation of BRICS and Indonesian participation in the BRICS
(5 March) Ng Keelian (professor, Hong Kong Baptist University)
- #09 Asian Community and America’s TPP strategy
(12 March) Makoto Taniguchi (former deputy secretary-general of OECD, adviser, Institute of East Asian Studies, Jilin University)
- #10 Indonesia: The emerging economy...the insight into its economy and its role in the Asia-Pacific region
(19 March) Muhammad Lutfi (ambassador, Embassy of Indonesia in Japan)
- #11 China’s role in Asian Community and TPP
(2 April) 陳建安 (professor, Fudan University)
- #12 Trans-boundary pollution and economic development in Asia
(2 April) Fuston Quah (professor, head of Economic division, Nanyang Technological University, Singapore)
- #13 East Asian Community – from the concept to its actual establishment
(13 April) Akira Kojima (trustee and guest professor, National Graduate Institute for Policy Studies)
- #14 Southern growth triangle and Asian Community
(20 April) Chew Soon Beng (professor, Nanyang Technological University, Singapore)

- #15
(27 April) Tasks for the formation of Asian Community: past, present and future
Chen Fenglin (professor, China Foreign Affairs University)
- #16
(4 May) (subject undecided)
Victor FS Sit (professor, Hong Kong Baptist University)
- #17
(4 May) (subject undecided)
Yoji Sato (director) / 鄭俊申 (chief researcher) of One Asia Foundation