

The University of Tokyo
Course on “East Asian Community – with focus on relations of Japan and Korea”
Summer semester from April to July, 2012

#01 Introduction to the Course
(April 13) Tadashi KIMIYA (Professor, University of Tokyo)

Part I. Historical Origin of the East Asian Community

#02 East Asian Community before and after the War
(April 20) Toyomi ASANO (Professor, Chukyo University)

#03 The Cold War and East Asian Regionalism
(April 27) LEE Jong-Wong (Professor, Waseda University)

#04 Historical Development of East Asian Regionalism; beyond the Cold War
(May 11) CHO Yang-Hyeon (Professor, Korea National Diplomatic Academy)

Part II. Issues Concerning the Conflict of the Perception of History

#05 The Perception of History and East Asian Community
(May 18) Haruki WADA (Professor Emeritus, University of Tokyo)

#06 Diplomatic Normalization Negotiations between Japan and South Korea, and (May 25) the Perception of History
LEE Won Deog (Professor, Kookmin University)

#07 Solution for Issues of the Perception of History
(June 1) NAM Ki-Jeong (Professor, Seoul National University)

Part III. East Asian Community as a Political / Economical Issue

#08 FTA between Japan and Korea, TPP and East Asian Community
(June 8) Yukiko FUKAGAWA (Professor, Waseda University)

#09 Security Issues and East Asian Community
(June 15) JIN Chang-Soo (Director of the Sejong Institute Japan Center)

Part IV. East Asian Community and China-North Korea

#10 East Asian Community Seen from a Diplomat's Viewpoint
(June 22) KIM Hyung-Jin (Director-General of North American Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade)

#11 How to Take North Korea in East Asian Community
(June 29) PARK Jong-Jin (Professor of Institute of Japanese Studies, Seoul National University)

#12 China and East Asian Community
(July 6) ZHU Jianrong (Professor, Toyo Gakuen University)

#13 Conclusive lectures
(July 13) Kang Sang-Jung (Professor, University of Tokyo)
Yoji SATO (Chairman, One Asia Foundation)