

College of Arts and Sciences, University of Tokyo

Vision of Asian Community and the issue of historical perception

Duration: From October 2013 to January 2014

Part 1. Unfolding, and current situation of, differences in historical perceptions in East Asia

2013

#01 Introduction: significance of considering the issue of historical perceptions in Asia
(October 1) Masaru Tonomura (professor, Graduate School of Arts & Sciences, University of Tokyo)

#02 Escalation process of the issue of historical perceptions in East Asia
(October 8) Hiroshi Mitani (professor, Graduate School of Arts & Sciences, University of Tokyo)

#03 East Asia in the age of imperialism: to understand the age
(October 22) Yujiro Murata (professor, Graduate School of Arts & Sciences, University of Tokyo)

#04 Experiences of those who lived in a border and the issue of historical perceptions
(October 29) 李海燕 (associate professor, Faculty of Technology, Tokyo University of Science)

#05 The Korean Peninsula under colonial rule of Japan and its influence on contemporary
(November 12) South Korea — the issue of cultural assets
柳美那 (professor, Institute of Japan Studies, Kookmin University)

#06 Historical perception of North Korea, and settlement of past issues
(November 19) Koichi Ishizaka (professor, College of Intercultural Communication, Rikkyo University)

#07 Experience and memory of Taiwan under Japan's colonial rule
(November 26) 藍適齋 (professor, Faculty of History, National Chung Cheng University)

#08 Exchange between Taiwan and Japan, and making the most use of its historical resources
(December 3) by Taiwan
Hiroko Matsuda (assistant professor, Faculty of Humanities, Kobe Gakuin University)

Part 2. Searching for the way to solve the differences in historical perceptions Asian countries

#09 History textbooks of Japan, China and Korea: experiences and tasks of providing common
(December 10) educational materials
Takenori Matsumoto (professor, Graduate School of Agricultural and Life Sciences, Univ. of Tokyo)

#10 History textbooks of Japan, China and Korea: acceptance of common educational
(December 10) materials and their active use
娜荷芽 (full-time instructor, Faculty of Mongolian History, Inner Mongolia University)

2014

#11 Possibility of a new perception of history through civilian cooperation
(January 7) 李洙任 (professor, Faculty of Business Administration, Ryukoku University)

- #12 Vision of a multi-cultural society and the issue of historical perception
(January 14) Fumio Oishi (board member, NPO for education of foreigners staying in Japan)
- #13 How to promote a process of reconciliation of conflicting parties regarding the historical (January 21) perception issue
朴裕河 (professor, Faculty of Humanities, Sejong University)
- #14 Discussion regarding the lectures and reports of the course
(January 28) Masaru Tonomura (professor, Graduate School of Arts & Sciences, University of Tokyo)
- #15 Vision of mutual understanding among East Asian peoples, and wrap-up discussion
(January 30) Yoji Sato (director, One Asia Foundation)