

University of Seoul (UOS)
Course on Asian Community

Duration: From March to June, 2017

- #01 (07 January) Introduction of the course: change of international order and Asian paradox
Keum Hie Yeon (professor, Faculty of International Relations, UOS)
- #02 (14 March) Theoretical background of Asian integration: possibilities and limits
Moon Chungin (professor, Faculty of Politics and Diplomacy, Yonsei University)
- #03 (21 March) Regional integration: in the case of Asia and that of Europe
— process of, and lessons from the case of European integration
Kang Won Taek (professor, Faculty of Politics, Seoul National University)
- #04 (28 March) Two flash points in Asia
(1) Cross-Strait relations: conflict and cooperation
Keum Hie Yeon (professor, Faculty of International Relations, UOS)
(2) New formation of South-North Korean relations — unification and integration
Hwang Jiwan (professor, Faculty of International Relations, UOS)
- #05 (04 April) China and Taiwan: from confrontation and conflict to cooperation
(1) Cross-Strait relations: China's policy toward Taiwan
Lee Ming (professor, Faculty of Diplomacy, National Chengchi University, Taiwan)
(2) Integration of Taiwan: unification or isolation
Chang Ya-chung (professor, Faculty of Politics, National Taiwan University)
- #06 (11 April) Process of industrialization, modernization and militarization of Japan
(1) Japan's modernization and its national strategy
Keum Hie Yeon (professor, Faculty of International Relations, UOS)
(2) Historical reconciliation in North East Asia and search for regional community
Chung Jae Jeong (professor, Faculty of National History, UOS)
- #07 (18 April) Japanese foreign policy and its relations with surrounding nations in the post-cold war period
Akio Takahara (professor, Faculty of Law, University of Tokyo)
- #08 (25 April) Asian economy: integration and cooperation
Han Sangwan (president, Hyundai Research Institute)
- #09 (02 May) Great strategy of China: peaceful development and a theory of "threat posed by China"
(1) China 3.0 (scenario of selective attack)
Keum Hie Yeon (professor, Faculty of International Relations, UOS)
(2) Rise of China and its implications in Asia and the world
Zha Daojiong (professor, Faculty of International Relations, Peking University)
- #10 (09 May) Community and co-existence: international immigration and multi-cultural society
Lee Byung Ha (professor, Faculty of International Relations, UOS)

- #11
(16 May) Understanding of Middle East and Islam
(1) Islam: to understand religion and culture
李熙秀 (professor, social anthropology, Hanyang University)
(2) Situation in the Middle East and Islamic States (ISIS)
Yin Namsik (professor, National Diplomatic Academy)
- #12
(23 May) Integration of South East Asia and ASEAN: process and tasks of ASEAN integration
李在賢 (research fellow, International Politics, Asan Institute for Policy Studies)
- #13
(30 May) Emergence of the People's Republic of China: role and policy of MIKTA
—Cooperation and integration of Asia: role and policy of Australia—
David Walton (professor, International Relations, University of Western Sydney)
- #14 (06 May) (holiday)
- #15
(13 June) Special lecture 1—Pivot to Asia: America's repositioning and rebalancing in Asia
Joel Campbell (professor, International Relations, Troy University, Alabama, USA)
- #16
(20 June) Special lecture 2—Toward a one world
Yoji Sato (director, One Asia Foundation)
Term-end examination

*Note* Lectures are subject to change according to lecturers' convenience.