

Toyo Gakuen University

We are friendly neighbors — Cultural Commonality of Asian Community —

Duration: From April to July 2017

- #01
(11 April) Reconsideration of cultural commonality — explanation of the course in this year
Zhu Jian-Rong (professor, International Relations, Toyo Gakuen University)
- #02
(18 April) Spirit of fraternity first for the future of Asia
Yukio Hatoyama (former prime-minister, director, East Asian Community Institute)
- #03
(25 April) Evolution of Asian Community
Chung Joonkon (chief researcher, One Asia Foundation)
- #04
(09 April) “Ideal model” of Asian women in the historical light of Asian women
Tomoko Yamazaki (writer)
- #05
(16 May) Studies on “chinatown” in Japan — with a focus on history of Nagasaki
王 維 (professor, Cultural Exchange, Nagasaki University)
- #06
(23 May) History of currency exchange between Japan and China
Masahiro Tomita (former diplomat, Consul General of Chongging)
- #07
(30 May) Story of illustrated books in Asia
Amei Tou (former editor, Fukuinkan Shoten Publisher Inc.)
- #08
(06 June) Vietnamese culture as a miniature version of Asian diversity
Tran Van Tho (professor, Vietnam and Asia, Waseda University)
- #09
(13 June) Europe and Asia in the eye of writers of modern Japan
Yumiko Kanda (professor, Japanese Culture, Toyo Gakuen University)
- #10
(20 June) Confucian tradition in East Asia: difference and similarity among Japan, China and Korea
金鳳珍 (professor, Political Thought, University of Kitakyushu)
- #11
(27 June) Japan in the Chinese language, and China in the Japanese language
Masamichi Mitsuma (specially appointed professor, Chinese Culture, Reitaku University)
- #12
(04 July) Roots of Asian music
郭 敏 (yangqin player, Association of Chinese Musicians)
- #13
(11 July) Exploring the deep roots of “Misunderstanding” between Japan and China
Tadanori Murata (professor emeritus, Japan-China Relations, Yokohama National Univ.)
- #14
(18 July) New administration of the U. S. and the orientation of Asia
Eiichi Sindo (president, International Academic Society of Asian Community)
- #15
(25 July) Cultural exchanges will become the base of Asian Community twenty years later
Zhu Jian-Rong (professor, International Relations, Toyo Gakuen University)

Note Lectures are subject to change according to lecturers' convenience.