

Nagasaki University

Course on “Asian Community : Multi-Cultural Society where peoples live together”

Duration: From April to July, 2015

<Cross-over point of knowledge>

#01 Coexistence with memory (general theory)
(08 April) Kazunori Hayanagi (professor, Theory of Cultural Representation, Nagasaki Univ.)

#02 Methodological transnationalism and Asia
(15 April) Kazuhisa Nishihara (professor emeritus, Sociology, Nagoya University)

#03 Non-Western type politics and Asia
(22 April) Yukio Sato (professor emeritus, International Politics, University of Toyama)

<Coexistence of history and memory>

#04 History and memory (history of general concept)
(13 May)) 孫 江 (professor, Modern History, Nanjing University)

#05 China-Japan relations and perception of history
(20 May) 徐顯芬 (professor, History of International Politics, East China Normal University)

#06 History of colonial sufferers and their memory
(27 May) 李秀烈 (professor, Modern Japanese Intellectuals, Korean Maritime and Ocean Univ.)

< Cross-border people and their culture>

#07 Roving peoples (minority groups in China)
(03 June) Toshikazu Shuto (professor, Modern Asian Society/Culture, Nagasaki University)

#08 Formation of culture in the borderline territory and its dissolution
(10 June) Makoto Minami (assistant professor, Sociology, Nagasaki University)

#9 Korean diaspora and Asia
(17 June) 具知暎 (professor, Sociology, Korean Maritime and Ocean Univ.)

#10 Cultural exchanges in East Asia
(24 June) 徐興慶 (professor, History of Cultural Exchanges, National Taiwan University)

#11 History of people's exchange in the Asian marine area
(01 July) 劉序楓 (professor, History of People's Exchange, Korean Maritime and Ocean Univ.)

<Governance in Asia>

#12 Regionalism and Asia
(08 July) Yuji Morikawa (associate professor, International Politics, Nagasaki University)

#13 Citizens' network and the space of peace
(15 July) 李起豪 (professor, Irenology, Hanshin University)

#14 Economic Asia: escape from poverty
(22 July) Satoshi Komatsu (associate professor, Development Economics, Nagasaki Univ.)

#15 Concluding lecture: concept and tasks of Asian Community
(29 July)