

Catholic University of Korea
Course on “Asian Community”

Duration: From to, September to December, 2014

Part One: East Asia and regional community: theory, current situation and policy of major countries

- # 1st week Introduction to the course: the beginning of regional theories
崔永宗 (professor, Catholic University of Korea)
- # 2nd week Concepts of regional community — comparative studies
崔永宗 (professor, Catholic University of Korea)
- #3rd week Summary of East Asian major countries' policy toward this region
崔永宗 (professor, Catholic University of Korea)

Part Two: Review of main pending problems in East Asia

- #5 week Territorial conflicts in East Asia and regionalism
具民教 (professor, Graduate School of Administration, Seoul National University)
- #6 week Military conflicts in East Asia and regionalism
朴仁輝 (professor, Ewha Womans University)
- #7 week Economic conflicts in East Asia and regionalism
崔源起 (professor, National University of Foreign Affairs)
- #8 week Mid-semester test
- #9 week History issues in East Asia and regionalism
金學俊 (director, Northeast Asian History Foundation)
- #10 week Culture clash in East Asia and regionalism
崔晉宇 (professor, Hanyang University)
- #11 week Environmental problems in East Asia and regionalism
吳京澤 (professor, Chonnam National University)

Part Three: Toward the formation of East Asian Regional Community

- #12 week A proposal to establish East Asian Community
金基石 (professor, Kangwon National University)
- #13 week East Asian Community and Korean Peninsula
尹永寬 (professor, Seoul National University, former foreign minister of S. Korea)
- #14 week Search for a solution to the main issues of East Asia — announcement of winning essays presented by students

#15 week East Asian Community — dialogue between experts and students

#16 week Term-end examination

Note Lectures are subject to change according to lecturers' convenience.