

Center for International Education & Research (IER), Wakayama University
Course on “Asian Community : Future of Asia from a Viewpoint of World Heritage”

Duration: From October 2014 to January 2015

- #01
(01 October)            Creation of “One Asia” and Future of Asia from a viewpoint of world heritage
Fubito Endo (director, IER, Wakayama University)

- #02
(08 October)            Vision of Asian Community — what is One Asia
鄭俊坤 (chief researcher, One Asia Foundation)

- #03
(15 October)            For listening to the lectures of Asian guests at this course
Fubito Endo (director, IER, Wakayama University)

- #04
(22 October)            Creation of “One Asia” and the situation regarding world heritage
Yoshihumi Muneda (professor, Kyoto Prefectural University, member of International Council on Monuments & Sites)

- #05
(29 October)            Wakayama Prefecture’s preservation efforts of world heritage and its tasks
Kazuya Sugimoto (chief of world heritage team, Dept. of Education, Wakayama Prefecture)*

- #06
(05 November)            World heritages in China in the light of environmental protection and its tasks
Ms. Shaoquian Ruan (vice-director, World’s Cultural Heritage Center for West Lake Cultural Landscape of Hangzhou)*

- #07
(12 November)            The future of Asia considered at the place of Kii-Kumano
Kumi Kato (professor, Faculty of Tourism Studies, Wakayama University)

- #08
(19 November)            Participation-style social development projects in Asia
Yutaka Ohama (associate professor, Nihon Fukushi University)

- #9
(03 December)            One Asia and gender issue
Koto Kanno (visiting professor, Mejiro University)

- #10
(10 December)            World heritages in Indonesia and public administration
Ms. Laretna T. Adishaki (professor, Gadjah Mada University, Indonesia)

- #11
(17 December)            Promotion of civil activities and sustainable development in Thailand
Ms. Anchan Gaemchoei (president, Bangkok Forum)

- #12
(24 December)            World heritages in Malaysia and town management by citizens
Ms. Khoo Salma Sunin (president, Penan Heritage Trust, journalist)*

- #13
(07 January)            Globalization and Asian regional communities
Ichiro Fujiyama (specially appointed associate professor, IER, Wakayama University)

- #14
(14 January)            Change in images of “Asia” in modern Japan and the possibility of creating “One Asia”
Norio Suzuki (professor, Faculty of International Communication, Aichi University)

#15                      Creation of "One Asia"
(21 January)          Yoji Sato (director, One Asia Foundation)

* Lectures be given using "Skype"