

Course plan and course aim of this year (contents, schedule and lecturer of the course); syllabus to be attached in a separate sheet:

The title is Special Lectures on Asian Community in Europe.

Students receive credits after passing an exam at the end of the course. Undergraduate students majoring in Japanese, Chinese, and Korean studies will participate. Lecturers will have to prepare articles (contents of the lecture) in English and present them to the class. Each invited lecturer will send the final version of their lecture (which will be possibly published) in time so that students can study for the oral examination which will be in Italian. The course is for elective and compulsory class.
