

Tianjin Foreign Studies University

Rapidly Changing Situation of Northeast Asia and building Asian Community

Duration: From September to December, 2016

- #01 Common body of Asian nations through civil exchanges
(09 September) 修 綱 (professor, Japanese Culture, Tianjin Foreign Studies University)
- #02 Cultural exchange between China & Japan, and the formation of East Asian Community
(16 September) 徐 冰 (professor, Comparative Culture, Northeast Normal University)
- #03 Shift in Japanese view on civilization in modern times, and integration of Northeast Asian civilization
(23 September) 楊棟梁 (professor, Japanese History, Nankai University)
- #04 The role of economic cooperation in the formation of Asian Community
(28 September) 安成日 (professor, Japanese History, Heilongjiang University)
- #05 Religious thought and Asian Community
(14 October) 金 勳 (professor, Philosophy, Peking University)
- #06 Political process of North Korea in the age of Kim Jong-un
(21 October) 李春虎 (professor, Korean Culture, Shanghai International Studies University)
- #07 Record of personal visit to North Korea
(28 October) Atsushi Ijuin (chief researcher, Japan Center for Economic Research)
- #08 Changing situation of North Korea and circumstances of Northeastern Asia
(04 November) Hidesi Takesada (professor, North Korean Politics, Takushoku University)
- #09 Changing situation surrounding the unification movement of the Korean Peninsula
(11 November) 孫基雄 (professor, South-North Relations, Korea Institute for National Unification)
- #10 Realities and difficulties of the formation of Asian Community
(18 November) 李基東 (professor, Politics of N. Korea, Institute of National Security Strategy)
- #11 Asian Community and trends of Japanese politics which is tilting towards right-wing
(25 November) 鄭俊坤 (chief researcher, One Asia Foundation)
- #12 Asia will become one in the near future
(02 December) Yoji Sato (director, One Asia Foundation)

Note Lectures are subject to change according to lecturers' convenience.