

Bishkek Humanities University

Asian Community and Basic Trends in the Global Development:
*Learning from the Past and Present of Asia for the Future of Asia

Duration: From September 2012 to May 2013

Autumn Semester

- #01 (5 September) The Cradles of Global Civilization: Western Asia, Southern Asia and Eastern Asia in the context of formation of Asian Community.
Talesbek Mashrapov (Dean of the Faculty of OSIR, Bishkek Humanities University)
- #02 (12 September) World religions as the root bed of spiritual development of the Humankind: Genesis of Abrahamic religions - Their possible impact on future formation of Asian Community.
Ishenbay Abdurazakov (Professor, Bishkek Humanities University)
- #03 (19 September) Historical parallels in the development of moral and philosophical teachings. Their significance for the formation of Asian Community.
Ishenbay Abdurazakov (Professor, Bishkek Humanities University)
- #04 (26 September) The Axial time: Lao Tse, Confutsius, Socrates and others. Its correlativity with the future of Asian Community.
E. Ismailova (Professor, Bishkek Humanities University)
- #05 (4 October) Buddhism in Asia. Its impact on formation of Asian Community.
S. Dushenbiev (Associate Professor, Bishkek Humanities University)
- #06 (11 October) Islam and its spread in Asia. Its role and impact on the process of formation of Asian Community.
Talesbek Mashrapov (Dean of the Faculty of OSIR, Bishkek Humanities University)
- #07 (18 October) The rudiments of ecological awareness in popular perception: common points of contact in Tengrianism, Daoism and Shintoism. What valuable elements of them could be taken and adopted by the Asian Community in future?
K. Bokonbaev (Professor, Bishkek Humanities University)
- #08 (25 October) The Great Silk Road – a first bridge in Eurasia: Trade plus Culture. What useful elements are contained in the experience of the Great Silk Road for the formation of Asian Community?
Avazbek Abdurazakov (Minister-Counselor of the Embassy of the Kyrgyz Republic)
- #9 (1 November) The revival of the Great Silk Road upon the basis of today's realities. The synthesis between achievements of the East and West within the context of formation of Asian Community in future.
Muratbek Imanaliev (Former Ambassador of Kyrgyzstan to China)
- #10 (8 November) The origins of egocentrism's formation in consciousness: objective and subjective roots. Its possible impacts on the processes of formation of Asian Community and the means to overcome it.
M. Suyunbaev
- #11 (15 November) Education for the formation of the Asian Community as a backbone means of liberation from ignorance, prejudices and complacency.
Ishenbay Abdurazakov (Professor, Bishkek Humanities University)

- #12
(22 November) Experience exchanges within the development of educational systems - a vital requirement of the epoch for the formation of Asian Community.
Talesbek Mashrapov (Dean of the Faculty of OSIR, Bishkek Humanities University)
- #13
(29 November) Experience exchanges and mutual assistance in the development of Informational Technologies (IT) – an effective way of promoting a better understanding between the peoples of Asia for the formation of Asian Community.
Askar Kutanov (Former Ambassador of Kyrgyzstan to Japan)
- #14
(6 December) The Culture – a thread bonding with the soul of other peoples. Its role and significance for the formation of Asian Community.
Ishenbay Abdurazakov (Professor, Bishkek Humanities University)
- #15
(13 December) The Role of Tourism for the formation of Asian Community: The Importance of Mutual Understanding and Intimacy beyond Mutual Familiarization.
Talesbek Mashrapov (Dean of the Faculty of OSIR, Bishkek Humanities University)
- #16
(20 December) The study of experiences of other countries and adoption of efficient models of development – a most effective way towards the sustainable development of the countries of Central Asia towards the formation of Asian Community.
Ishenbay Abdurazakov (Professor, Bishkek Humanities University)
- #17
(27 December) Central Asia – the heart of Eurasia. its successful and stable development as a factor of peace and security in Asia that is vitally important for the formation of Asian Community.
Ishenbay Abdurazakov (Professor, Bishkek Humanities University)

Spring Semester 2013

- #18
(7 February) The Afghan knot of problems: background, present state and the outlook. Peace, stability and post-war development of Afghanistan as the sine qua non components of the formation of Asian Community.
Avazbek Abdurazakov (Minister-Counselor of the Embassy of the Kyrgyz Republic)
- #19
(14 February) Root origins of “three evils” and rational ways to overcome them within the context of formation of Asian Community.
E. Erlan Abdyldaev (General Director, Institute of War and Peace Bishkek)
- #20
(21 February) How should we comprehend the meaning of Asianism? The scopes of its contiguity with the concept of “Eurasianism” with regard to future formation of Asian Community.
Ishenbay Abdurazakov (Professor, Bishkek Humanities University)
- If it is possible to overcome false manifestations of the “historical memory” for benefits of the future of Asian Community?
A. Mokeev (Professor, Manas Kyrgyz-Turkish University)
- #21
(28 February) Territorial disputes of today: hard-edged confrontation or mutual use? A review-study from within the context of the future prosperity of Asian Community.
Ishenbay Abdurazakov (Professor, Bishkek Humanities University)

What could be derived by Kyrgyzstan from experiences of development of other countries with regard to future formation of Asian Community

- #22 (14 March) (1) Japan
Ishenbay Abdurazakov (Professor, Bishkek Humanities University)
- #23 (20 March) (2) South Korea
M. Sherikulova (Professor, Bishkek Humanities University)
- #24 (28 March) (3) China
Muratbek Imanaliev (Former Ambassador of Kyrgyzstan to China)
- #25 (4 April) (4) Countries in Southeast Asia
Askar Beshimov (Former Ambassador of Kyrgyzstan to Malaysia)
- #26 (11 April) (5) India
Eugeniy Kablukov (Deputy Secretary of the Embassy of Kyrgyzstan in India)
- #27 (16 April) (6) Afghanistan
Avazbek Abdurazakov (Minister-Counselor of the Embassy of the Kyrgyz Republic)
- #28 (18 April) (7) Iran
Avazbek Abdurazakov (Minister-Counselor of the Embassy of the Kyrgyz Republic)
- #29 (23 April) (8) Turkey
M. Begaliev (Associate Professor, Bishkek Humanities University)
- #30 (25 April) (9) Arab World
V. Tanyrykov (Professor, Bishkek Humanities University)
- #31 (May) The Goal of One Asia Foundation
Yoji Sato (Chairman, One Asia Foundation)