

Yan Tai University

Course on “Asian Community”: Cultural practice and Asian Community (2)

— Memory and Recollection

Duration: From August to October, 2015

- #01 Memory and recollection with regard to “One Asia”
李文哲 (lecturer, program manager, Yan Tai University)
- #02 Special speech: Why we need “One Asia” now
鄭俊坤 (chief researcher, One Asia Foundation)
- #03 How should we talk about “Asia” now?
李成市 (professor, Oriental History, Waseda University)
- #04 Universality and particularity of Asia reflected in Asian poems
趙強石 (professor, Literature, Inha University, S. Korea)
- #05 Establishment of Korea-centered view of the world and Asian Community
禹景燮 (professor, History of Korean Thought, Inha University, S. Korea)
- #06 Issues and conciliation — for the solution of ethnic problems in Asia
王希恩 (professor, Ethnology, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences)
- #07 Problems of socially alienated people reflected in the conditions of migrating workers
潘澤泉 (professor, Sociology, Central South University)
- #08 Possibility of “One Asia” in the light of humane studies
朴銀姬 (lecturer, Comparative Culture, Ludong University)
- #09 Asian order reflected in ethnic relations
崔明德 (professor, Ethnology, Yan Tai University)
- #10 Image of Asia in the age of Tang Dynasty
蘭 翠 (professor, Tang Poetry, Yan Tai University)
- #11 Modern education and Asian Community
趙文靜 (professor, Politics, Yan Tai University)
- #12 Asia in the representation of Media
齊愛軍 (professor, Media Culture, Yan Tai University)

- #13 Asian Community and thought of Chinese people
馬曉麗 (professor, History, Yan Tai University)
- #14 The meaning of academic exchanges for the formation of Asian Community
張西俊 (associate professor, Head of International Exchange, Yan Tai University)
- #15 Concluding speech: The road leading to “One Asia”
Yoji Sato (director, One Asia Foundation)
- Round-table talk: How should we think about the formation of Asian Community

Note Lectures are subject to change according to lecturers' convenience.