

Kyushu International University (KIU)

Special Course on “Asian Community”

Duration: From September 2017 to January 2018

- #01 The reason to think about “Asian Community” at Kitakyushu
(22 September) Takashi Kimura (associate professor, International Law and Politics, KIU)
- #02 East Asian Regionalism and possibility of “Asian Community”
(29 September) Kazuhide Kato (professor, International Relations, KIU)
- #03 Russia and China in the eye of a statistician
(06 October) イリーナ・エリセーエワ (professor, Economics, Saint Petersburg Univ. of Economics)
- #04 Is Asian Community an institution?
(13 October) Yeun-Sun Kim (professor, International Economic Law, Jeju National University)
- #05 Current situation of rising India and hereafter
(20 October) Daisuke Sato (journalist, India-based)
- #06 Possibility of Asian Community: from my experience of staying in Korea and China
(27 October) Ryosuke Yamada (associate professor, S. Korean Affairs, KIU)
- #07 Community and media
(03 November) Gyotae Ku (professor, Mediaology, Keimyung University)
- #08 Asian Community and minority peoples in Central Asia
— Korean society in Kazakhstan 80 years after forced settlement —
(10 November) Ri Eria (senior research professor, Study on Minority Peoples, Waseda University)
- #09 Border tourism — a new type of tourism connecting Kyushu and Busan
(17 November) Ryu Shimada (senior researcher, Kyushu Economic Research Center)
- #10 Japan in the eye of Russians
(24 November) オレグ・リャボフ (consul general, Russian Consulate in Osaka)
- #11 Japan – S. Korea relations considered at the diplomatic front
(01 December) Kimihiro Miyata (vice director, Public Information & Cultural Center in Korea)
- #12 Mutual exchanges in Asia at the civic level, and international cooperation
(08 December) Daisuke Fujii (associate professor, International Relations, KIU)
- #13 Anarchy in the Philippine — who keeps social order?
(15 December) Wataru Kusaka (associate professor, Study on Philippine, Nagoya University)
- #14 Possibility of Asian Community in the eye of a multinational enterprise
(22 December) 盛美元 (staff person, Legal Department, Branch Office of Intel Corporation)
- #15 Why do we need Asian Community now?
Scholarship award ceremony
(19 January) Joonkon Chung (chief researcher, One Asia Foundation)

Note Lectures are subject to change according to lecturers' convenience.