

The University of Sheffield
Japan in the World - For One Asia Community
Duration: From February to May 2016

LECTURE/SEMINAR OUTLINE

INTRODUCTION AND APPROACH

Week 1 (8 th February)	Introduction and significance of Japan's international relations: politics, economics and security
Week 2 (15 th February)	Pattern of Japan's international relations: historical development
Week 3 (22 nd February)	Explanation of Japan's international relations: structure, agency and norms

JAPAN AND AN AMERICAN WORLD: politics, economics, security

Week 4 (29 th February)	Japan's political relations with the United States
Week 5 (7 th March)	Japan's economic relations with the United States
Week 6 (14 th March)	Japan's security relations with the United States

(EASTER BREAK: 19th March until classes restart on 11th April)

JAPAN AND ONE ASIA: politics, economics, security

Week 7 (11 th April)	Japan's political relations with East Asia
Week 8 (18 th April)	Japan's economic relations with East Asia
Week 9 (25 th April)	Japan's security relations with East Asia
Week 10	BANK HOLIDAY – READING WEEK
Week 11 (9 th May)	Challenges for Japan
Week 12 (16 th May)	Conclusion: Review, Feedback and Module Evaluation

Note Lectures are subject to change according to lecturers' convenience.