

Vietnam National University Hanoi,
University of Languages and International Studies
Understanding Asian Community
Duration: From September to December 2016

Syllabus:

Each invited lecturer will perform 1 or 2 lectures at Faculty of Oriental Studies, University of Foreign Languages and International Studies, VNU.

September

I week, Do Tuan Minh, "Introduction to the course and trends of East Asian International Relations"

II week, Thailand Ambassador, "Geopolitics in Asia and Asian Community"

III week, Indonesian Ambassador "Geopolitics in Asia and Asian Community"

IV week, Korean Ambassador, "Geopolitics in Asia and Asian Community"

October

V week, Kim Youen, "Current Situation and Prospects of Regional Integration in East Asia"

VI week, Nguyen Ngoc Binh, "Creating Asian Community beyond International Cooperation: Vietnam and Thai's case"

VII week, Mai Ngoc Chu, "Position and Role of Vietnamese Culture in Asia 1"

VIII week, Mai Ngoc Chu, "Position and Role of Vietnamese Culture in Asia 2"

November

IX week, Pham Quang Minh, "Identity as catalyst for ASEAN integration: Regional Integration: Perspectives from the EU and ASEAN"

X week, Jung Chang Wook, "Tourism and connections between Asian countries"

XI week Nguyen Hoa, "Intercultural Communication in the light of East – West Cultural Differences and the lessons for Asian Community."

XII week Natthaya Sattayaphongphan, "The Confucian View of World Order: Asian Identity."

December

XIII week, Hoang Khac Nam, "The Role of the Republic of Korea and Possibilities of ROK-ASEAN Relations in East Asian Cooperation"

XIV week, Dao Thi Nga My "History and Asian Community in the point of view of Japan"

XV week, Yoji SATO (Chairman of the One Asia Foundation) "For Prosperity of Asian Community and Identity"

Note Lectures are subject to change according to lecturers' convenience.