

Summary of research to date:

It is our first Application.

We will “publish” the book in which the contents of whole lectures will be contained for helping student to study and submit it to the One Asia Foundation. It will be useful to grasp views of scholars about Asia and Asian Community throughout the world including Thai scholars, and also to stimulate studying about Asian Community in Thailand and Southeast Asia.

Course plan and course aim of this year (contents, schedule and lecturer of the course); syllabus to be attached in a separate sheet:

The title is Special Lectures on Asian Community

Syllabus:

Each invited lecturer will perform 1 lecture at UTCC, University of the Thai Chamber of Commerce.

January

I week, Natthaya Sattayaphongphan (Professor, UTCC), “Introduction and background of Asian Community”

II week, Singapore Ambassador, “Geopolitics in Asia and Asian Community”

February]

I week, Japanese Ambassador, “Geopolitics in Asia and Asian Community”

II week, Chinese Ambassador “Geopolitics in Asia and Asian Community”

III week, Korea Ambassador “Geopolitics in Asia and Asian Community”

IV week, Indonesia Ambassador “Geopolitics in Asia and Asian Community”

March

I week, Yoji SATO (Chairman of the One Asia Foundation) “For Prosperity of Asian Community and Identity”

II week, Kim Youen (Professor, Hanyang University , South Korea), “Current Situation and Prospects of Regional Integration in East Asia”

III week, Antonetta L. Bruno (Professor, La Sapienza University, Italy) “Creating Community beyond the Boundaries: a challenge”

IV week, Wichian Intasi (Professor, Naresuan University, Thailand), “Thailand position on the East Asian Community”

April

I week, Damrong Thandee (Professor, Ramkhamhaeng University, Thailand), “Northeast Asian Integration: The Relationship between China, Korea, and Japan”.

II week, Chaiwat Khamchoo (Professor, Chulalongkorn University, Thailand), “Political Changes in Asia-Pacific”

III week, Colonel Pisut Tempatarachoke, “Security Corporation among ASEAN Armies”

IV week, Tanin Buranamanit (Director and Executive Vice President of CP ALL Public Company Limited), “Tendency of Asian Economic Integration and Cooperation”

May

I week, Final Examination