

Seoul Women's University (SWU)

Course on Asian Community

Duration: From March to June 2017

- #01                      Orientation of the course
(03 March)              Song Whanbhum (specially-appointed professor, History, SWU)
- #02                      Commemorative lecture: why we need Asian Community now
(10 March)              Chung Joonkon (chief researcher, One Asia Foundation)
- #03                      Modern Asia and invention of myth
(17 March)              Jin Juna (assistant professor, History, Zhejiang Gongshang University)
- #04                      Asian Community considered from a viewpoint of literature
(24 March)              柳水晶 (research professor, History, SWU)
- #05                      Peace community in Asia in terms of religious diversity
(31 March)              Yi Chan Su (research professor, Comparative Religion, Seoul University)
- #06                      Asian Community and view of Neo-Confucianism on community
(07 April)              崔在穆 (professor, Philosophy, Lingnan University)
- #07                      Discours of Asian Buddhism and community based on harmony
(14 April)              元永常 (research professor, Buddhism, Wongwang University)
- #08                      Various forms of popular culture and the possibility of Asian cultural community
(21 April)              金京姬 (associate professor, Literature, Hankuk University of Foreign Studies)
- #09                      East Asian Community from a viewpoint of cultural psychology
(12 May)              Shin Hyun Seung (associate professor, Philosophy of East Asia, Sangji University)
- #10                      Language of literature for communication and harmonious Asian Community
(19 May)              Wu Min (assistant professor, Literature, East China Univ. of Political Science & Law)
- #11                      Asian Community and myth of East Asia
(26 May)              柳江夏 (research professor, Chinese Literature, Yonsei University)
- #12                      Economic integration of Asia and communicative economic philosophy
(02 June)              金相郁 (assistant professor, Chinese Economy, Pai Chai University)
- #13                      "Humanities for peace" in East Asia in search for harmony and mutual understanding
(09 June)              Yu Sung Sun (professor, Korean Philosophy, Kangwon National University)
- #14                      Special lecture by the director of OAF; scholarship award ceremony
(16 June)              Yoji Sato (director, One Asia Foundation)
- #15                      Concluding speech and feedback on the course
(23 June)              Song Whanbhum (specially-appointed professor, History, SWU)

*Note* Lectures are subject to change according to lecturers' convenience.