Kyunghee University

Course on "Asian Community"

Duration; From September to December 2015

#01   The future of Asia and understanding of the vision of Asian Community
Yoji Sato (director, One Asia Foundation)

#02   Lessons for the concept of Asian Community from the experience of European integration
洪起峻 (professor, Politics, Kyunghee University)

#03   Asian Community and the United States
柳正完 (professor, Kyunghee University)

#04   Thai Democratization in the context of ASEAN Community
Viengrat Nethipo (professor, Administration, Chulalongkorn University, Thailand)

#05   Economic and Financial conditions in Southeast Asia
李孝根 (head of Economic and Financial Section, Daewoo Securities Co. Ltd.)

#06   Culture and politics in Central Asia
Ri Eria (professor, Diaspora, Waseda University)

#07   China as a global power, and Asia
鄭鐘弼 (professor, Politics, Kyunghee University)

#08   The possibility of forming East Asian Community considered from a historical viewpoint
鄭址鎬 (professor, Chinese History, Kyunghee University)

#09   Civil society in Asia: what the "citizenry" can do
鄭峻坤 (chief researcher, One Asia Foundation)

#10   Immigration within Asia: political geography crossing national boundaries
朴浩成 (representative, International Immigration Cultural Forum)

#11   Publication trend concerning Asian Community
Takeshi Ryuusawa (board member, East Asian Conference of Persons related to Book Business)

#12   The food culture in Asia
Toshio Asakura (professor, Anthropology, Osaka National Museum of Ethnology)

#13   The possibility of "Asian literature"
安永勳 (professor, Korean Literature, Kyunghee University)

#14   Asian Community in the eye of those living in its peripheral region: Taiwan's view on Asia
陳永峰 (professor, Politics, Tunghai University, Taiwan)

#15   What is Asia: historical progress of arguments for Asian Community, its tasks and future vision
宋錫源（professor, Politics, Kyunghee University）

#16   Examination and evaluation
宋錫源（professor, Politics, Kyunghee University）

Note Lectures are subject to change according to lecturers' convenience.